

FIRE ALARM AND EMERGENCY LIGHTING TRAINING

Introduction:

This programme was designed for employees who need to carry out all necessary Fire Alarm and Emergency Lighting Design and Servicing.

Objective:

To provide delegates with the required skills and knowledge needed to safely carry out the necessary checks on Fire Alarms and Emergency Lighting.

Programme Synopsis:

- Types of Fire Alarms
- Cable types and their uses
- Detectors and Panels (Not analogue)
- Basic system design
- Basic surveying techniques
- Costing
- Battery size calculation
- Fault Finding and Repairs
- Servicing
- Use of the spreadsheets
- Certification of alarms
- Emergency Lighting Basics
- British Standards
- Documentation

Duration: One and a half (1½) Days

Course Code: TSCFA&EL

Awarding Body: The British Fire Consortium