

ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS

Introduction:

The programme provides an introduction to the requirements and responsibilities of Environmental Awareness within the workplace.

Objectives:

Delegates will gain knowledge in best practice relating to environmental impacts.

Programme Synopsis:

- Legislative requirements
- Responsibilities
- The Environmental Protection Act
- The Environment Act
- SWARF
- Waste Management
- Water Pollution
- Storage of chemicals
- Environmental Monitoring
- Regulating Bodies

Duration:	One (1) Day
Course Code:	TSCENVA
Certification:	Training Solutions 2000

INTRODUCTION TO ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS

Introduction:

This programme provides an introduction to environmental management systems and their implementation and is suitable for all organisations wishing to improve their environmental performance

Objectives:

Delegates will gain knowledge in best practice relating to assessing environmental impacts and performance monitoring, including energy consumption and waste, and will examine the relevant cost savings which can be made to the bottom line.

Programme Synopsis:

- Environmental Management Systems
- Background to Environmental Auditing
- Assessing Environmental Impacts
- Group Exercise
- The Cost of Waste
- Mapping the process and identifying waste streams
- Examining the options for reduction and recycling

Duration:	One (1) Day
Course Code:	TSCIEMS
Certification:	Training Solutions 2000

ENVIRONMENTAL SPILLAGE RESPONSE

Introduction:

Spillages, whether indoors or outdoors, can and do have serious implications for businesses. In order to help industry meet the challenges of Environmental Legislation, this programme has been designed to meet those requirements and give practical experience to attendees.

Objectives:

Delegates will understand the requirements of the legislation and will undergo a practical demonstration in spillage response to achieve competency.

Programme Synopsis:

- Introduction to Spillage Response
- 'Hot spots' on your site
- Relevant company environmental & waste legislation
- COSHH & other Health & Safety considerations
- Preventative measures including correct segregation & bunding
- Mitigating measures including spill procedure & correct disposal
- Practical demonstration (5 delegates per demo)
- Multiple choice test

Duration:	One Day
Course Code:	TSCESR
Certification:	Training Solutions 2000

EVALUATING YOUR IMPACT UNDER PPC

Introduction:

This comprehensive programme explains, in detail, the Pollution, Prevention & Control Act 1999 and is suitable for Energy Producers, Metal Processors, Mineral & Chemical Industries, Waste Management, Forestry, Tyre Producers and Food Industries.

Objective:

To provide delegates with guidance on how to assess your organisation's environmental impacts, evaluate your performance and implement a system to ensure compliance.

Programme Synopsis:

Day One

- Introduction & Update on the relevant Legislation
- Definition of activities, installations and operators
- Deemed LA PPC Applications
- Consultation
- Management Systems and operator competency
- The PPC Application Process – existing and new installations
- BATNEEC

Day Two

- Environmental Quality Standards & Air Quality Management Areas
- Noise & Vibration
- Odour Control
- Energy Efficiency under the Climate Change Levy
- Accidents and preventative measures
- Health & Safety Issues
- Monitoring, Reporting and Inspections

Duration:	Two (2) Days
Course Code:	TSCPPC
Certification:	Training Solutions 2000